

Information For Contributors

General Information

Bangladesh Journal of Pathology is published twice a year. It accepts original papers, case reports, review articles and short communications related to various branches of pathology for publication. Paper should be solely contributed to the Journal.

Manuscripts

Manuscripts should be prepared in accordance with the Vancouver style. Two copies of each paper along with figures, tables, photomicrographs, photographs and the relevant materials should be submitted to the editor. Manuscripts should be typed in English on one side of white bond paper ISO A4(211-297 mm) with margins of at least 25 mm using double space throughout. Each of the following section should begin on separate pages: Title Abstract and key words, Text, Acknowledgements, References, individual Tables and legends. Paper should be numbered consecutively beginning with the Title page.

Title page

The title page should include (i) the complete title of the article (ii) name of each author with highest academic qualification and signature (iii) institutional affiliation of each author and (iv) name and address of author responsible for correspondence.

Abstract

It should begin with the full title of the article. The abstract should be more than 150 words. The abstract should state the purpose of the study or investigations, basic procedures, main findings and principal conclusion. Three to ten key words may be provided below the abstract using terms from the Medical Subject headings (Index Medicus, NLMUSA).

Text

The text of observational and experimental article should be divided into sections with headings Introduction, Materials and Methods, Result and Discussion.

Reference

Reference to literatures should be numbered in arabic numerals superscript consecutively in the order in which they are mentioned in the text. At the end of article the full list of reference should give the names of all authors followed by the title of the article, the title of the journal abbreviated according to Index Medicus, the year of publication, the volume number and the first and last pages of the article. Title of books should be followed by the edition, place of publication, the publisher, the year and the relevant pages. Examples of correct forms of reference are given below.

Journal

1. YagupskeyP and Noltes FS. Quantitative aspects of septicemia, Clin Microbiol Rev 1990;3:269-271.
2. Keneko, S, miler RH, DiBisceglie AM et. al. Detection of hepatitis B Virus DNA in serum by Polymerase Chain Reaction: Application for Clinical Diagnosis. Gastroenterology 1990;00:799-804.